MARCH

GREETINGS LLPS family...

Have you every wondered why Christians celebrate St. Patrick's Day? Well, did you know?... St. Patrick was not technically a saint - never having been canonized - and he wasn't Irish! However, St. Patrick is celebrated for being one of the first great missionaries who brought the gospel to Ireland. St. Patrick is responsible for many Celts converting to Christianity and the planting of Christian churches in Ireland! He is also responsible for using symbolism to explain the Holy Trinity to Celts by using the popular shamrock. St. Patrick inspired many to follow their calling into missions and plant more churches - even outside of Ireland. Celebrating St. Patrick's Day is a celebration of missions and evangelism, and it is a remembrance of the work God was able to do through the obedience of Patrick. Each class will celebrate St. Patrick's Day focusing on this legacy evangelism with special arts & crafts! Have a Happy St. Patrick's Day!
